MAYDINE BEATEN IN SPIRITED FINISH.

J. Woods's Clever Riding on Verify Landed Cahn's Sprinter a Winner by a Nose.

ST. CUTHBERT'S POOR RACE

Dr. Rowell's Gelding Was Favorite | M. Ransha, 7 to 2 third. Time 12 the Man. Penk Brank-Book, Prank Ball. for the Fourth Race, but Could Not Untrack Himself in the Going.

St. Cuthbert was the biggest disappointment of the day's resing at the Full Grounds. He was an even-money favoritfor the fourth tace, a six-furloug dasa, which brought out the best sprinters at the track, but the best he could do was to finish a poor fifth.

The race went to Verify in the most exciting finish seen at the race track in many a day. The Cahn sprinter set the verilet over Maydine by a nose.

J. Woods gave a numberly exhibition of riding on the winner. Off in the first flight he lay within halling distance of Maydine, who had set about to accomplish the rather difficult task of burning up the muddy track. The pacemaker had a world of speed and for awhile it seemed as though Verify would never get to her. However, Woods had the bearer of the steel-gray and pink under wraps and did not set sull for the leader until straightened out for home.

He then gave the gelding his bend and framediately the daylight between him and leader disappeared. Maydine, though, had something left, and, under a grueling finish by Dominick, the game little filly ferced Woods to get every ounce our of Verify to land the purse.

St. Cuthbert was off badly, but although vigorously ridden by Talley all the way be could never get within bailing distance of the leaders. St. Cuthbert's poor showing is explained by the fact that he never could untrack himself in the mud. Doctor Rowell was nader the impression that the going was much better than it was, or he would never have started his sprinter.

Five milers started in the opening event, and they gave the farm players considerable trouble selecting a favorite. It was a close proposition and every horse in the race was played. W. B. Gales went to the post a slight choice over Walkenshaw. Gates, cleverly ridden by Crowhurst, lay in second place to the stretch turn, and then came on and won handily. Joe Doughly, who made the pace all the way, surprised every one by holding on long enough to beat Connie Lea for the place. The latter and Walkenshaw had all the hard hock of the race. At the first turn thy came together, and Walkenshaw had all the hard hock of the seemed to take all the running out of

to shake up Jimp to beat Chorus Buy for third money.

A glimpse in the ring before the fifth race would lead one to think that the bookles had found a stake filly in Lilly Pantland. Seven to five is the best they would lay against the Fonso filly. She had done nothing to warrant her being held at such a short price, and the players set about to find something to beat her. Lilly's price stood pat, despite the fact that there was a heavy play on Orieans. The Butcher and Harry Fulliam. A good start found The Butcher in front with the other choices close up. Lilly chased the Schort coit to the stretch and for awhile it appeared set though she might cop. She could not stant the drive, however, and Talley come gway with the vender of sousage and wan handly by three links. Lilly had to be hussied up to stall off Harry Fulliam's rush at the end. Eva's Darling, the even-money choice for the curtain drop, raced away from her field. Julietta B, was cut off and thrown our on the stable turn,

This afternoon Wadded, while pitching for Pinnsutawney, Pa. was handed a telegram from Cornelius Magdis usby, otherwise known as Conne Mack, now manager and part owner of the Milwankee club of the American League, Mack offered Waddell Ele per mouth and all expenses to fluish the season with Milwankee, Rube, standing in front of the grand stand, tore the message to atoms and sati to the message.

grand stand, tore the message to atoms and sain to the messager:

"Tell Mr. Mack, and sign my name, that Eddie Waddel likes Purasutawney, and he will stick here for the rest of the year, if he has to pay his own expenses and don't get a cent in salary.

There is not a little amusement manifest among the cranks in Fittsburg to-night over the wrong working of the new club rules sprung by Manager Fred Clurke when the team reached Philadelnita yesterday, Clarke rounded his men up and told them they must cut out even shopping expeditions during the present tip. No social engagements went. The club has lost the game Both pitchers were in rare form, and the viewent of chance entered very largely into the result, as on Thursday.

St. Louis's two rans were scored in the righth inning, when, with two men on Clarke a suggestion to place books on the considering the advisability of sending clarks.

Garvin, the Chicago Pitcher. PERCELEC SPECIAL Chicago, Ill., July 29.-Clark Griffith has added an avocation to his repertoire and is now a full-fledged manager. He is backer, matchmaker and sponsor for the latmatchmaker and sponsor for the latest aspirant to ring honors. Griffith is in earnest in his efforts to get on a match help tween Pitcher Garvin and McGovern and list as hopeful of the success of his protege as Sam Harris.

The following letter from Boston to Manager Houseman of Tatter-alls shows the seriousness of Griffith:

"Can you arrange a fight between Virgil Garvin, pitcher of the Chicago Baseball Chib, and McGovern to nake place of Tattersalls." McGovern to nake place of Tattersalls. McGovern to nake place of Tattersalls and all results of t
